Building Tour: Carl T. Curtis National Park Service

Join us for a tour of Nebraska's first Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design® certified building, the Carl T. Curtis National Park Service, Midwest Regional Headquarters building on Omaha's riverfront.

Cindy Tooker, a LEO A DALY designer on the project, will discuss the sustainable aspects of the facility and how sustainable design impacts marketing in the built environment.

After the tour, SMPS Nebraska will be hosting a networking gathering for members and nonmembers at the Upstream Brewery in the Old Market. A generous sampling of appetizers and first round of drinks are on us! We look forward to seeing you there!
